N.B.—This Receipt is not valid unless countersigned by the Agent through whom the premium is collected.
See notice endorsed on the back hereof.

— NOTICE —

Agents are not authorized to make any change whatever in receipts for premiums or to waive forfeiture of any condition of a Policy or premium receipt; this can be done only by a writing signed by an authorized executive officer.

If a note, cheque, draft or other obligation given for the first or subsequent premium, or any part thereof, be not paid at maturity, it is expressly agreed that the within named Policy shall thereupon become null and void, except as modified by the non-forfeiture terms, if any, of the Policy, but the note, cheque, draft or other obligation must nevertheless be paid.

Should this Policy lapse for nonpayment of premium and subsequently be restored, such restoration shall not create an obligation or precedent for waiving any condition of the Policy in regard to subsequent non-payment of any premium on the day it falls due.

IMPORTANT—IF AGE IS NOT ALREADY ADMITTED.

PROOF OF AGE:—Your age is material to your contract of insurance and evidence that the age stated in your application is your true age will be required before the policy is paid. Forms of proof will be sent upon request.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Rules & Regulations

1. No person other than the renter or approved deputy named in the books of the Bank or legal representative in case of death, insolvency or other disability of the renter) shall have access to the box, excepting as hereafter expressly stipulated.

2. When a box is surrendered all keys must be returned to the Bank.

3. The Bank shall not be required to superintend, check or verify the deposit or removal of any contents of any safety deposit box.

4. Renters will be charged for all rental of the box until all keys are returned to the Bank.

5. If the renter loses one or both of the keys to the box he is requested to give immediate notice of that fact to the Bank. The loss of one key or both keys to a box involves the expense of a new lock, the costs of which must be borne by the renter.

6. All rents of boxes are payable in advance. If the renter of a box at the expiration of any term or upon the earlier termination, shall not renew such renting, and shall fail to give up possession of the box, the Bank shall have the right, fifteen days after mailing notice of their intended action to the address of the renter as registered in their books, or after direct service thereof, to forcibly open the box of such renter in the presence of an officer of the Bank and of one other witness to remove the contents therefrom and to hold and retain the same on special deposits, subject to the payment of all rent that may be accrued and shall charge for the use of the box after the ending of the term, proportioned to the annual rental and of all expenses incurred in opening the box and changing its lock and keys and also for the safe keeping of the contents after their removal from the box.

7. The use of the box is in every instance granted by the Bank and accepted by the person using the same, upon the express understanding and agreement that the Bank may terminate such use, without being required to give any reason therefor and require the vacation and surrender of the box at any time upon repayment or tender of repayment of the pro rata proportion for the unexpired term of the amount paid for the use of the box.

8. Access shall be had to the vaults during banking hours on each business day, but the Bank reserves the right to forthwith close the vault if in the opinion of any of the officers they are exposed to danger from fire, mobs, or other causes.
